

Information sheet regarding the world record attempt for the Guinness Book of World Records
“The largest rolling Automobile Museum of the World”
during the Jim Clark-Revival at Hockenheimring
(a minimum of 1000 cars must drive one round on the F 1 race track)

1.) Conditions of participation

Vehicles of all categories and cubic capacity classes up to 1976 are allowed to participate. The vehicles do not need to be registered for public roads use.

2.) Deadline for registration / Issuing of documents

The deadline for registration is Saturday 29. April 2006, 17.00 hours. You will receive your documents, your schedule, your starting numbers, etc. outside the Hockenheimring, Parking Lot P2 before the DJK Sports Hall (opposite the tunnel with traffic lights).

3.) Registration procedure

Registration must be sent in either per fax or per post to:

FiA-Secretariat
Zur Dreispitz 20, 65388 Schlangenbad
Tel.: 06129-1540, Fax: 06129-1599

You will receive your registration confirmation with 7 days.

A complete registration entails the registration form which has been completely filled out and signed together with a copy of the vehicle registration document or a FiA Vehicle Identity Form or a DMSB Vehicle Passport or any other proof regarding the year your car was built (only up to 1976). Furthermore we definitely require a photo of your Oldtimer.

In the time between 28. – 29. April 2006, you will receive your documents and instructions only from the document issuing centre (see Point 2).

4.) Cost of participation

Regarding your participation for the world record attempt, there will be naturally no participation charges at all for you (Saturday from 19.00 hours onwards). Admission for you will be free of charge on Saturday from 16.00 hours onwards. Each participant will receive a certificate “Member of World Records“ if we are able to let 1000 vehicles drive one round on the F 1 race track.

5.) Exclusion of liability

All participants of the world record attempt are required to sign a waiver of liability during the issuing of documents (see Point 2) due to insurance reasons.

6.) Accommodation

You will find a hotel list with sensational special rates on our website www.jimclark-revival.com . If you wish you book directly with the various hotels out of this contingent quoting “Jim Clark-Revival / World record attempt“.

It is also possible to book camping lots at the Hockenheimring. Please contact: Frau Votta, Tel.: (0049) 6205-950 211, Fax: -950 299, Email: camping@hockenheimring.de

7.) Miscellaneous

You will receive further information after we receive your registration per Email or just visit our homepage www.jimclark-revival.com .

Please note that your complete registration should reach us by the latest 25. April 2006. After this date, registration is only possible on location (see Point 2).